

THERE'S Fun IN YOUR FUTURE

NATIONAL HAVE FUN AT WORK DAY
IS FRIDAY, JANUARY 27TH

Studies have shown that infusing fun into the workday can boost productivity and reduce sick days. If that's the case, and who are we to question science, we're suggesting that you join us in National Have Fun at Work Day on Friday, January 27th. It's our second annual celebration of all things fun, and this time around we've upped the ante on the shenanigans. All you have to do is: 1) check a few (or all) items off the list, 2) snap a photo, 3) share on social using the hashtag #MakeTimeForFun and 4) wait for a fancy prance prize to arrive in the mail.

- Confetti cannon someone
- Channel your inner Rainbow Dash – wear all the colors of the rainbow
- Have a cupcake toast
- Do one viral challenge (JuJu On That Beat, Mannequin Challenge, etc.)
- Make a meme of your coworker and post it on their desk
- Start all phone calls with a knock-knock joke
- Play a game of trash can basketball
- Put a positive post-it note on the bathroom mirror
- Grab a happy hour drink with your coworkers
- Get crafty – decorate someone's desk using only office supplies
- Freestyle rap about puppies
- Draw a mustache on your finger and talk with it
- Exercise break – do some jazzercise
- Make emoji masks and take a #groupie
- Play Heads Up, Seven Up
- Drink everything out of a silly straw
- Dress up a coworker's mouse as an actual "mouse"

May the fun be with you!
